

Madison Herb Society

36th Annual Herb Faire

Saturday, November 3, 2018 - 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Olbrich Botanical Gardens - 3330 Atwood Avenue, Madison, WI

Beyond Parsley, Sage, Rosemary, and Thyme

Featuring Herbal Vendors, Lectures, and Demonstrations

Speakers

9:30 a.m. - Growing Herbs for Tea

Your garden offers a wealth of herbal flavors for summer and winter beverages. Erin Presley, Olbrich Herb Garden's horticulturist, shares the basics of growing, using, and preserving herbs commonly used for beverages.

11:30 a.m. - Cooking with Indian Herbs and Spices

Neeta Saluja, author of Six Spices: A Simple Concept of Indian Cooking, discusses how to use and store spices, as well as common techniques in Indian cooking.

1:30 p.m. - Wreaths & Swags from Your Herbal Harvest

Master Gardener and long-time MHS member Joan Flynn demonstrates the art of wreath-making using herbs and other unusual plants from her garden.

For more information, visit MadisonHerbSociety.org or our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/MadisonHerbSociety/>

FREE
ADMISSION

Open
to the Public